

Dear Reader,

It is my pleasure to say thank to my colleague, Dr. Erzsébet Dombi-Kemény, who already edited our 8th booklet. I think it is very important in the life of our department that not only we, but our known and unknown colleagues in our country (and maybe outside of Hungary) also use our publications. About this fact we can find evidence in the book of Christoph Wolff (Johann Sebastian Bach. A tudós zeneszerző. Park Kiadó, Budapest 2004. – On page 625 it alludes to our issue „A barokk kor interdiszciplináris megközelítése” Szeged, 2001.)

In our booklet you may find the presentations of our latest conference in 2007. This conference focused on the work and life of Zoltán Kodály. Beside this you can read about different matters as well. I would hereby like to thank the “Foundation for Szeged” for sponsoring our publications.

I hope you will enjoy this book, and can use it in your work or study.

Szeged, on 1st January 2008.

Noémi Maczelka DLA
Pianist, head of the Music Department
University of Szeged Faculty of the Education “Juhász Gyula”